10. Collective nouns take singular verbs when the collection is thought of as a whole. For example,

- The team is fit.
- The committee agrees to the proposal.

Note

When the individuals within the group are talked about, the verb is plural. For example,

- The committee are not in agreement over the proposal.

11. When a plural noun is a proper name for a single object or a collective unit, it takes a singular verb. For example,

- The Arabian Nights is my favourite book.

12. When the plural noun depicts some specific quantity or amount considered as a single whole unit, the verb is singular. For example,

- Twenty-five years is a long period of time.
