That night, it rains a lot and a strong wind blows. Gita is worried. She thinks her flower will die.

The next morning, she runs to see the plant.

'Oh! My lovely red flower is still there!' Gita jumps up and down and claps.

Her mother comes out to look at the flower.

She smiles at Gita and says, 'Look at the colour, Gita. How dark the red is!'

'Yes. It is dark red,' says Gita. 'Aayyi, can I take a photo with your phone?'

'Label the photo HIBISCUS,' Kumar says. 'What are you going to do with the flower?'

What will you do with the hibiscus?
