

Watch the video and do the given exercise ;

A Match the words in columns A and B to make sentences.

A	B
1.  Daulat Lal	a) flew away with your son.
2.  A hawk	b) ate the weighing scales.
3.  Raja Ram	c) rushed to Raja Ram's house.
4.  The mice	d) gave his weighing scales to Daulat Lal.

A sentence always has an action word. It tells us what (the action) the doer (subject) does. Read these sentences.

- Daulat Lal and Raja Ram lived in a village.
- Hari went home with Raja Ram.

Read out the sentences in class.

B Write the sentences you have formed in activity A. Then underline the action words in them.

C Sing the song! Can you find out the action words in the song?

The mice in the house go
 Scamper, scamper, scamper
 Scamper, scamper, scamper
 The mice in the house go
 Scamper, scamper, scamper
 All day long.

Action words are also called verbs. They express an action or a state of being. For example,

- Daulat Lal got worried about his son.
- Daulat Lal and Raja Ram were friends.

D Match these animals to the actions they do. For example, the sharks in the sea go swimming. Then add new verses to the song you just read and sing with your friends.

Animals	Actions
1. sharks in the sea	a) slide
2. penguins in the ice	b) swim
3. frogs in the pond	c) gallop
4. snail in the mud	d) hop
5. horse in the field	e) waddle

Name three people in your family who make you feel happy. In two sentences describe what they do to make you feel happy.

A Imagine you borrowed a book from a friend, but it tore. Use words from the box to complete the note and say sorry to your friend.

folktales / ghost stories chewed it / threw it into a puddle bookshops / book fairs am sorry / apologize forgive / angry

..... (date)

Dear,

The book of that I borrowed from you is torn. My dog, Timmy,

My mother has been to different but she has not been able to find a copy of the book. I

..... I hope you will me.

With love,

.....

Imagine you meet Daulat Lal a few days after what happened in the story. What questions will you ask him?

Here are some ideas—

- Why did you lie to your friend?
- How did you feel when Raja Ram lied to you?
- What should good friends do for each other?

Tell or write a story about friendship. It could be a story that you have read or one that you have heard from your parents/grandparents.
