Subject: English

Watch video and do the activities in book:

A Join the dots to complete the shapes. Then answer the questions.

1. What does the moon look like here?

The moon looks like a bow here.

2. What does the moon look like here?

The moon looks like as 'O' here.

B Complete the sentences in one or two words.

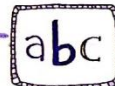

1. The poet is excited to see the moon and stars.

2. The poet is speaking to her mother.

3. Sometimes the moon is small and sometimes big in size. (big, small)

C The moon looks like three different things in the poem. What are they?

lamp, bow, 'O'

A Choose words from the box to make comparisons. The first one has been done for you.

- Farid is as naughty as a monkey.
- The bus is moving as slow as a snail.
- Chetna is as talkative as a parrot.
- The house looks as pretty as a picture.
- The ribbons are as blue as the sky.
- The button on my dress is as tiny as an ant.

ant
picture
monkey
parrot
sky
snail

B Fill in the blanks with your own words to make comparisons.

- as high as a mountain.
- as soft as a fur.
- as round as a circle/O.
- as black as a crow/darkness.
- as deep as the sea.

The poet says the moon looks 'round as an O'. This means the shape of the moon is being compared to the shape of the letter O.
